

Canaan Land

Lena Martin

Elizabeth Drudge

1. While trav - 'ling through the wild - er - ness on Prov - i - dence Di - vine,
 2. Well, Is - rael oft pro - voked the Lord, they mur - mured and com - plained;
 3. Twelve spies were sent to search the land and ten re - turned in woe;
 4. Oh! Broth - er, have you sent the spies of un - be - lief and doubt,

God led the way to Ca - naan land where Is - rael was to dine;
 The les - sons seemed so hard to learn and lit - tle ground was gained;
 They feared the gi - ants would o'er - take and so re - fused to go;
 And found the land of vic - tor - y has gi - ants all a - bout?

From E - gypt's bond - age you were loosed, from slav - er - y set free,
 Now do you move a - long with God, o - bed - ient to His call,
 But Josh - u - a and Ca - leb's faith in vig - or was re - newed,
 Send Josh - u - a and Ca - leb, too, and list - en while they say,

Now God com - mands you to pos - sess the land of vic - to - ry.
 Or shrink in - to the wild - er - ness where doubt - ers of - ten fall?
 Well ab - le to pos - sess the land where grapes of Esh - col grew.
 "Well ab - le to pos - sess the land, pos - sess the land to - day!"

Chorus

O, come and live In Ca - naan land, where grapes of Esh - col sweet - ly grow;

O, come and live In Ca - naan land and full sal - va - tion tru - ly know;

Go in pos - sess, The land is free, no price to - day do I de - mand;

Go in pos - sess, Pos - sess the clus - ters rich of bless - ings, oh, so grand!
